Prospective Horse Donation Form

Hello! Thank you for considering Cloverleaf as a possible home to donate your horse or pony! Many of our horses have been donated by individuals like you, and we could not function without your support.

Here are a few things to consider if you think your horse would be happy as a therapeutic riding horse/pony:

Contrary to what some may believe, being a therapeutic riding horse is a physically, emotionally, and mentally challenging job! Therapeutic horses need to be 100% sound at the walk, trot, and canter. A horse's walk mimics the movement we use while walking and is therefore very beneficial for both cognitive and physically challenged clients.

The best therapeutic riding horse has good ground manners (also good working in hand), and does not mind being handled and approached by different individuals. They tend to have more of a curious nature/instinct instead of the flight instinct, especially when presented with something new or being put in a new situation. The horse should be comfortable with one or two sidewalkers (one person on each side of the horse assisting the client) while walking and trotting in the lesson.

Horse Donation Process:

The horse donation process is as follows:

1. Owner will fill out the prospective horse form. This form can be filled out online at www.cloverleafequinecenter.org/about/horsing-around/ or by hand by printing the form below. If you are printing the form to fill out by hand, you can submit the form by scanning it and emailing it to office@cloverleafequine.org or mailing it to the following address: Cloverleaf Equine Center, ATTN: Operations Director, 6429 Clifton Road, Clifton, VA 20124
2. Owner provides Cloverleaf with pictures of the horse (at least one head shot and one profile) and a short video of the horse being lunged and ridden at the walk, trot and canter. If the pictures and videos are available online (via YouTube, for example), then indicate on the donation form where our staff can locate them. If they are not available online, you may email them to us at office@cloverleafequine.org (if the files are relatively small).
3. If the horse/pony fits our current needs and facility space, we will contact you and set up a time for two staff members to interview the horse.
4. If the horse still seems to meet the program's needs after the interview, we will bring the horse in on a minimum 60 day trial, and the owner will enter in a Horse Trial Agreement with Cloverleaf. During the trial period, we will continue to evaluate him/her for suitability for therapeutic riding, groundwork and various therapies (PT, OT, EFP, etc).
5. Before we accept a horse for donation, we will conduct a vet check towards the end of the trial period.

Please keep in mind that Cloverleaf is a 501 (C) 3 Non-Profit, and therefore any donations are tax deductible.
